Canberra Chaos

On the 21st of October Mrs. Robinson's Stage 3 students arrived at Canberra to see many sights. We visited many places such as The Dinosaur Museum, Parliament House, Questacon and many more.

Our first day at Canberra we visited the national Portrait Gallery which had some very disturbing but funny displays such as Ned Kelly's death mask and many more. followed by The National Portrait Gallery we had a tour of parliament house and the national war memorial. Later that day we visited The Dinosaur Museum where we learnt many new facts.

That night we had no sleep. Some of us were lucky to even have an hour of sleep. But the camp hadn't finished its wrath as the next day most of us felt sick and had headaches.

Besides our sickness we had more work to do. Soon we had arrived at Questacon, there were many exciting rooms. My favourite room was the freefall room, Next we had lunch followed by a tour of the Australian Institute of sport (A.I.S.).

Overall Canberra was full of fun and exhausting moments and I wish to do it all again.
