

EXTRA! EXTRA!

Marcus Harding

Recently on the 21st - 22st of October Stage 3 travelled 3 hours to Canberra to learn about democracy and governance.

First stop on this 2 day adventure was at the National Portrait gallery. Emily from stage 3 Quoted, "I enjoyed the story about the lady with the big hands."

Next stop was Parliament House. Jay from Stage 3 stated, "I was surprised when we saw Tony Abbott."

After Parliament House Stage 3 travelled to the next stop, the War Memorial. "I enjoyed the world war 2 interactive room." Sam, Year 5

A TRIP TO CANBERRA FOR STAGE 3

Stage 3 outside National War Memorial

To finish off the day Stage 3 travelled to the National Dinosaur Museum. "I liked learning about the different dinosaurs time periods. Also learning some dinosaurs facts." Sebastian, Year 6.

That night Stage 3 were split into groups of 8 and slept in a small cabin, but they didn't know that they would have a sleepless night. Blake from Stage 3 quoted, "I was so tired the next day, no one slept that night. "

The next day most of the boys were up early having showers and prepping for the day. Batuhan from Stage 3 stated, "We were up really early at 5:00am and ready to go."

When the rest of Stage 3 were up and ready ,they headed off to Quest-a-con." The Free Fall slide was my favourite interactive activity

Next, Stage 3 travelled to the Australian Institute of Sport (AIS). Ava from

Stage 3 quoted, "I enjoyed the interactive room because it had basketball, virtual soccer and bike riding just to name some of the awesome activates."

After all the activities Stage 3 went through, camp was over. The long trip home had just started.

Stage 3 stated, "It was an awesome camp!"

